

REHER CENTER

For Immigrant Culture and History

Please join us on Monday September 13th,
for a screening of Reher Center's short film -
"The Making of: Stitched Together"

A wonderful, short documentary by filmmaker Paula Ann Mitchell featuring the local high school student and teacher contributors to Reher Center's new courtyard exhibition, Stitched Together.

Discover in a brief, but provocative, film what these students learned and the connections they've made between past and present day Kingston.

Film screening with an outdoor buffet dinner at:

Ole Savannah

100 Rondout Landing

Monday, September 13th 2021

Film starts at 5:30, outdoor buffet at 6 PM

Raffle and prizes!

Buy your $55 Reher Center Supporter ticket here.

All ticket sales will support Reher Center's K-12 programming.

*OR register for a "Movie Premiere at Home"
to receive your link and watch along online with us.*

ReherCenter.org

Thank you so much to Dave Amato and Ole Savannah for your generosity!