

SIBLING FILMMAKERS FRANCESCO CORDARO AND ANDREA CORDARO

There is no dessert that is more identifiably Sicilian than Cannoli. And it is arguably the dish that defines the Italian Pastry Shoppe or Pasticceria. "Cannoli, Traditions Around the Table" brings us from sheep dairy farm to Nonna's kitchen, while exploring the role of cannoli in the Italian American home. Food, when shared, is a universal language that brings family together. So join us at the table.

- LA DELIZIOSA PASTRY SHOPPE -
A film by the Cordaro family. Sibling filmmakers Francesco Cordaro and Andrea Cordaro were inspired to create this film to honor their father's passion - Italian Pastry. Their father, Frank Cordaro is the award winning pastry chef and owner of La Deliziosa Pastry Shoppe. He was an important collaborator on this film, and it is his hands we see expertly making cannoli at the top of the film.
